HAPPENINGS AND WHEREABOUTS.

The largest and most elaborate afternoon event of the week was that given by Mrs. Edward F. Holmes at Amella Palace on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Abner Luman entertained at two delightful bridge teas at her home on Wednesday and Thursday.

Dr. and Mrs. F. F. Stauffer entertained at bridge on Wednesday and Thursday evenings. On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Stauffer was the hostess at a large and beautiful tea.

Mrs. John C. Daly and Mrs. Harry Bintz will entertain at tea this afternoon in honor of Miss Primeaux. They were also the hostesses at a tea given on Friday.

Mrs. Austin K. Tiernan and Mrs. J. H. Bennett entertained at a bridge tea on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cunningham gave a dinner to a number of their friends at the Alta club on Sunday evening.

In honor of Miss Elise Yeates and Miss Florence Culmer, Mrs. James Wade entertained a number of friends at bridge teas on Thursday and Friday. Mrs. Wade has as her guest Mrs. Richard Dorsey of Carson City, Nevada.

Tonight at Rowland hall the faculty and pupils will give a Japanese lawn party for the benefit of the Orphans' home, and a large attendance is expected. It will be quite a society event, particularly for the younger set, who will probably be there in force.

Mrs. Sol Siegel, who was recently appointed by Mayor Bransford as a representative to the congress to be held at Washington on the "Welfare of the Child," left for the east on Wednesday. She will visit some time in Baltimore.

The Utopia club met with Mrs. E. A. Wedgwood on Wednesday, when she entertained at a luncheon, followed by bridge.

"The Buskins" will perform Mrs. E. B. Palmer's playlet, "Flora D' L' Amour," at their meeting this evening, nine of the members of the club being in the cast.

Miss Helen Woodruff has gone to California to be away several weeks.

Mrs. J. W. Houston will be the honored guest at a bridge tea to be given by Mrs. E. A. Wall, at her home on Wednesday, next.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Caine have returned from a month's visit in Los Angeles.

A newly-organized bridge club met Monday evening with Miss Gladys McConaughy.

Mrs. A. N. McKay, who has spent the winter in California, has returned, and Mr. and Mrs. McKay are temporarily at home at the Colonial.

On Wednesday, May 14th, under the auspices of a number of the younger society girls, the second annual charity ball will be given at the Odeon for the benefit of the Play Grounds association.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Salisbury have gone east. While they are away Mrs. McGilvray of Pasadena, Mrs. Salisbury's mother, will remain at the Salisbury home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Wrench entertained at a beautiful dinner at the Alta club on Monday evening in honor of their guest, Dr. Anna F. S. Brown. Covers were laid for ten.

Mrs. W. G. Sharp, who is spending the spring here with her parents, Judge and Mrs. Robert Harkness, was the guest of honor at a luncheon, given by Mrs. A. H. S. Bird on Friday.

Mrs. W. W. Armstrong will entertain at a dinner on Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Harris K. Masters, who is about to leave for a visit to her old Kentucky home.
